GOP Policy

While Republicans complain about the Democratic foreign policy a group known as Democrats for Democratic Foreign Policy is at work.

This group complains that Republicans are making the policies, and list the following:

Dean Rusk, Secretary of State; Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara; William Bundy, Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs; Arthur Dean, William C. Foster, chief negotiators in Geneva; CIA Directors of McCone and Rabin; Ambassador to South Viet Nam Henry Cabot Lodge.

All these are Republicans, this group claims and they are the ones making foreign policy. — Sumter Daily Item
